

1. Getting off-course spiritually can be easy for us. As you feel comfortable, discuss a time when you chose to get off-course, or when you got off-course, but you didn't realize it until you were in a place you never thought you'd be. How did it affect your relationship with the Lord? What did you do? If it's been resolved, how did you respond, and ultimately, what happened as a result?

2. Read 2 Samuel 11

What decisions do you see David make that lead to the consequences that he faced? How do you see THINK IT > WANT IT > DO IT > PAY FOR IT play out? How do you see the sin compounding in David's life?

How have you experienced getting off-track like this? Have you had times where one sin led to another in your life? What stopped it? How did you respond?

3. Read 2 Samuel 12:1-15

When David is confronted with his sin, how did he respond? How does his actions reveal a heart to please God?

What glimpse of God's grace do you see here? How did David receive God's grace for His sin? How can we?

Even though David was forgiven, there were still consequences - what were they? How is this true in our lives too? Sometimes we expect that, if we're forgiven, there shouldn't be consequences — how have you thought like that in your life? Why is that faulty thinking? How should we look at situations like this?

4. Read Psalms 51.

How does this Psalm of David (written after the events of 2 Samuel 11-12) reflect a humble, contrite, God-focused heart and life? How is that a model for you?

5. What is your prayer this week to stay on-course and follow Jesus faithfully this week and the weeks to come?
