

1. In your own words, what is prayer? How often should you pray? How should you pray (words, posture, etc.)? If you're a Christ follower, should you pray more? What does prayer do? How have you seen God work in and through prayer?

2. Read Matthew 6:9-15.

:: Jesus gives us the pattern for prayer illustrated by the 4 "R's" we discussed Sunday. Take a moment to review each, and what they can look like in our lives.

:: What is the significance of "Requests" coming last?

:: If I keep on asking, seeking, knocking in prayer, does that mean that God will give me whatever I want? Why or why not? (Ref. 1 John 5:14-15)

3. Read Matthew 20:29-34.

:: If Jesus were to meet you face-to-face, and ask you, "What do you want me to do for you?" What would you say? What would you dare to ask of Jesus and have the confidence that it is something He wants to accomplish in and through you? How does Romans 8:31 factor into praying bold prayers?

4. How will what you learned through this passage affect the way you pray going forward?
