

1. How have you struggled with worry in your life? How have you seen that most things you worry about never come to pass? How can choosing to worry become sinful?

2. Read Matthew 6:25-34.

What are some high-points or things that really hit you as you read this passage? How have you walked in them already in your life? How do you need to change the way you think (with God's help and power) to have your mind focused in the right direction?

How does Jesus' command to not worry about what you eat affect how you think about diets and food choices? What is the difference between wise eating and worry eating?

What in your life creates the most worry? Why does that event or item cause you to worry? What does the Gospel say about that issue that can help you to trust God?

How does having an eternal perspective help you to not worry about your life?

Would you say that you ask God more often for wants or for needs? How does God handle our requests for things we want?

3. How do you think increasing our desire and concern for God's Kingdom lessen our worry over our lives and the future?
