1. Why do you think Jesus is bringing up prayer again?

2. How does prayer help with the kingdom living and expectations that Jesus has been talking about?

3. What do you struggle most about prayer? Is it just even praying, praying persistently, or actually believing that God is listening and will respond to your prayers?

4. Have you had times in your life where you felt God didn't hear you or answer your prayers? How do you compare that to fact in Matthew 7:7 it states that God answers our prayers

5. Read 2 Corinthians 12:7-10

How did Paul respond to God not answering his prayer request the way he wanted? How can we apply that to our own prayer life? Do you have a prayer request that you feel isn't being answered? How can you apply what Paul did to your situation?

6. Read James 1:5-8

What is the implication to our prayers? Do you ever prayer for something you don't fully believe God will answer? How does that impact your prayer life? How should you respond or adjust?

7. Read Matthew 7:12

- a. How does this relate to the previous section about prayer?
- b. How is this being written in positive form impactful (do unto others)? How does it make it harder to do?
- c. How does this relate to what has been discussed so far in Sermon on the Mount?
- d. Do you struggle within kingdom living and living the Golden Rule? If so, what does this passage suggest to do? What other verses are encouraging and helpful to you?
