

1. What are you looking forward to as we embark on this journey through the book of Exodus? What are you hoping to get out of our time together?

2. Read Exodus 1:8-22.

The Israelites were experiencing political, economic, social and spiritual slavery at the hands of the Egyptians. What are modern day examples of these in our world? How can a Christ follower respond to those needs?

How did the midwives play a role in preservation of God's people that ultimately rolls up to us today? Do you find it interesting that God would bless people for deceiving? When is it ok to lie (if ever)? Can you think of another time in the Old Testament where someone lied to protect God's people and were blessed because of it? How do you make sense of that?

3. Read Exodus 2:1-22.

How does this account of God's providence and protection of baby Moses encourage you?

How has Moses' experience growing up as a Hebrew in Pharaoh's palace been portrayed in the movies? What do you think it might have been like?

Why did Moses' first attempt to help the Hebrews fail? What were the practical, social, and spiritual reasons?

4. How has God prepared you for ministry? Have you learned your most valuable lessons in a "palace" or a "desert" or a "wilderness"?

5. In what way is God's gracious mission in Jesus Christ also seen in the book of Exodus?

6. Of the ministries you support, which ones focus on social action and which ones on spiritual action? Does each ministry have the proper balance?

7. Why is the social mission sometimes a necessary precondition to the spiritual mission? How does Matthew 11:5 express an integrative model of missions?

8. What's your next step?
