

1. What or whom do you see people worship in the world? Are any of those things a temptation for you?

2. Why do people prefer to worship things and people rather than God? What are the stated and unstated demands of each? What does each promise and deliver? What are the eternal rewards of each?

3. Read Exodus 32.

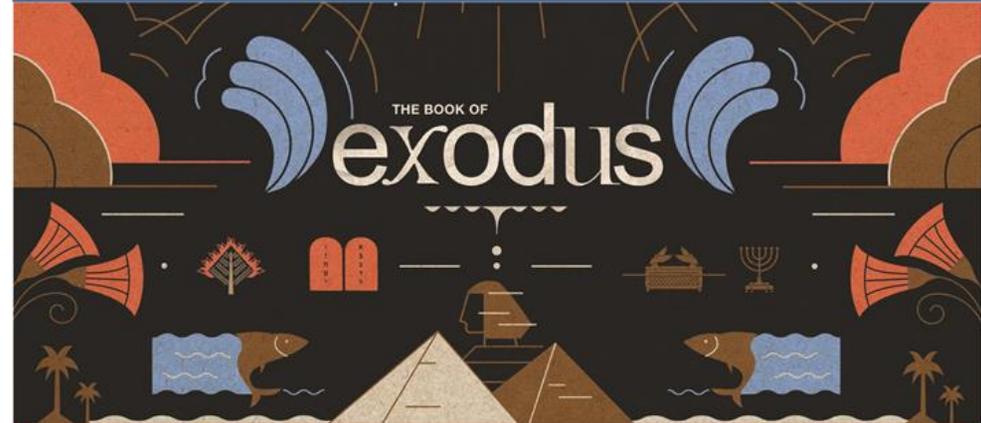

What excuse did Israel give for wanting an idol? What examples do you see of people blaming others for their own sin? How do we do that in our lives?

How did Aaron show weakness as a leader in this situation? What would be the response you would have expected from him in his position? How is this an example of the importance of the life of leader and how the leader's life reflects in the people who follow the them?

What was the example that Moses set as a leader? How was his response different than Aaron? In what ways should we respond like Moses responded?

In what ways do you see Moses acting in ways that Jesus does for us today?

4. What are some tangible lessons you can learn from this account? What's your next step?
