

1. Over the course of 15 weeks on our journey through Exodus, what has stood out, been a highlight, or even life-changing for you?

2. Would you rather have: God’s blessing without His presence, or God’s presence without His blessings? How is your choice reflected in your prayers and the choices you make in life?

3. Read Exodus 33.
What is significant about God’s message to Moses and the people in the opening verses? How is this an act of mercy?

What heart change do you see in the people of God? How is this different than what we have seen up to this point? How have you experienced God’s mercy that led to your repentance in your own life?

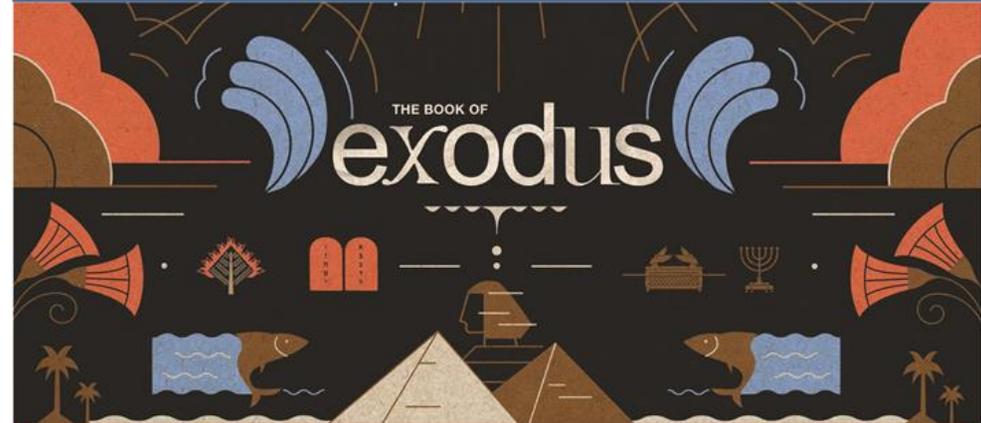

What is the greatest need in our spiritual lives? A few weeks ago, we looked at the “answer to everything.” Do you remember what that answer was? Check out Exodus 3:12 & Matthew 28:20 . Remember now? Spoiler alert....the answer to everything is: I will be with you. God’s presence in our lives and our circumstances is all we need. When you came to Christ, was this the message you received? How have you come to appreciate, understand and live this message?

In what way is the privilege of Christians today greater than that of Moses and the people of God in Exodus? Think: accessibility. How is it that we have access to the LORD in a much open fashion than the people had in Exodus? How do we embrace and abuse that access?

As Christ followers today, we have an assignment, a mission, that we can’t complete alone. What role does the Holy Spirit play in our lives as believers? What about the lives of people who are spiritually dead, apart from Christ? What does it look to walk in dependence upon the LORD to do the work that He’s called you to do? How does the promise to be with us apply here too?

4. What have you learned this week that you can apply to your life? What’s the one takeaway that you will ask God to make a reality in your life for His glory?

5. What about for the entire book of Exodus? What did you learn about God that you can apply to your life/situation? What did you learn about yourself that you can apply? Ask God to bring about His transformation in your life for your good and for His ultimate glory.
