

1. What is the Gospel? Have you responded to the Gospel call? What if you had never responded? How has your life been impacted if you have responded to the Gospel?

2. Paul is writing Romans in defense and clarity of the Gospel and to promote unity within the church. How would you define and describe the Gospel? How would Paul describe the Gospel in Romans 1:16-17? What power does the Gospel have? How have you experienced that power personally?

3. Read Romans 1:1-7
What does Romans teach us about the Person and work of Christ?

4. Read Romans 1:8-15
What do these verses teach us about our relationship to one another as Christ followers?

5. Read Romans 1:16-17
Paul says that he's not ashamed of the Gospel, he's "proud" of the Gospel, why?

Why might someone be ashamed of the Gospel today?

Why is it important to have an unshakable confidence in the Gospel?

6. Why is God's righteousness and having God's righteousness so important?

7. What is one thing you've learned that you need to apply to your life? (James 1:22)
