1. How do you describe self-righteousness? What does that look like in our lives? Can someone be in right standing with God being self-righteous?

2. Read Romans 2:17-24

What is the indictment Paul raises against the Jews? What evidence does he give? How have you seen this in the American Church today?

3. Read Romans 2:25-27

What criterion does God use to judge a person's spiritual condition? How is this unlike how we tend to judge?

What are the dangers of Cultural Christianity? How can we avoid these pitfalls?

4. Read Romans 3:1-8

How do you see Paul contrast people's unrighteous, untruthful, and unfaithful hearts and the fact that God is righteous, truthful, and faithful?

How are the Jews privileged? How are they also no better off than the Gentiles? How are the unrighteous and the self-righteous the same?

5. Read Romans 3:9-20

Who falls under the condemnation of God?

Why do people fall under the condemnation of God?

In what way is the "bad news" of Romans also good news?
