

1. Who or what do people put their faith in for this life and for eternity? What have you believed? How is faith in Jesus different from other beliefs?

2. Read Romans 3:21-23

What is the significance of the phrase, “but now?”

How does Paul say it is possible for us to receive God’s righteousness?

How does verse 23 encapsulate all of what Paul has been saying up to this point?

3. Read Romans 3:24

The first thing that happens when you transfer your trust to Jesus is that you’re justified. What does “justification” mean? How does justification go further than forgiveness?

4. Read Romans 3:25

Jesus was put forth as a propitiation, what does that mean? How is that a picture Jews would understand and relate to? How would they then understand Jesus’ sacrifice?

How do you see the great exchange occurring in the sacrifice of Jesus (God’s righteousness given to us. God’s wrath taken for us)? What are the implications for our lives?

5. Read Romans 3:26

How can God be, at the same time, Just and Justify those who put their faith in Jesus?

6. Read Romans 3:27-31

What are the implications of justification that Paul lays out? How do these things impact the life of a Christ follower?

7. Who or what do you put your faith in? Has God, in Jesus, shown you enough to prove that He is the way, the truth and the life - the only way to the Father? Are you trusting Him as Savior? If not, what’s holding you back? If are trusting Him as Savior, what do you need to do to follow Him as Lord?
