

1. When you think about your relationship with God, how have you been frustrated with yourself about on-going sin or the slowness of spiritual growth? What have you tried to do to overcome sin in your life? How have you seen spiritual growth in your life?

2. Read Romans 7:7-13

- a. We mentioned that Paul is referencing in this passage the “battle we cannot win.” What is that battle? Why, apart from Christ, is it an unwinnable battle?
- b. How does the law act like a mirror and expose your sin?
- c. Paul mentions the tenth commandment, “do not covet,” as an example of exposing our sin. Where do you notice covetousness in your own heart (or in the world)? In what ways does sin use covetousness to lead you to disobey God?

3. Read Romans 7:14-25

- a. To what extent do you relate to what Paul writes in this passage? What stands out to you most?
- b. Can you feel the frustration Paul is trying to communicate? When have you experienced a similar frustration? How have you dealt with that frustration in the past?
- c. How does Paul ultimately describe the battle we cannot lose? How is that possible?

4. Read Romans 7:1-6

- a. How is Paul’s analogy of marriage and death insightful and helpful in understanding your new relationship with God by faith in Christ?
- b. According to Paul in verse 4, what does belonging to Christ lead to? How do we bear fruit—or live—for God? What evidence in your life points to your devotion to God?

5. Why is our battle against the law and sin a battle that, apart from Christ, we are unable to win? How did your life before Christ prove that you couldn’t win the battle? Why is this battle, for us as Christians, one that we can’t lose?

6. What do you need to walk in this week, by God’s power in you, to be transformed in your thinking and in your life?
