

1. Have you ever experienced a moment where worship shifted your perspective or helped you through a difficult time?

2. Read 2 Chronicles 20:1–30.

How did Jehoshaphat respond when he faced overwhelming circumstances?

What does the word yadah mean, and how did the people of Judah express it in this account?

Why do you think God responded to their praise instead of their strength or strategy?

3. What's a situation in your life right now where you need to stop striving and start surrendering through worship?

4. Yadah involves lifting hands in praise as a sign of trust and surrender. How comfortable are you with expressing yourself in worship this way? What holds you back?

5. What practical step can you take this week to choose praise over fear?

6. How could your LIFE group support each other in choosing praise even when things feel uncertain?

Prayer Focus:

Spend time as a group lifting your hands and practicing yadah together. Thank God for His faithfulness and surrender the battles you're facing to Him.

MESSAGE NOTES

Pastor Joe Pryor

Worship isn't about the _____ of your _____, it's more about the _____ of your _____.

YADAH

"To revere or worship with extended hands. To hold out the hands. To throw a stone or arrow."

What battle are you facing right now?

What situation feels overwhelming or impossible right now that instead of fighting in your own strength you can surrender in YADAH?

*"...We do not know what to do, but our eyes are on you."
