

1. When you're on a road trip or vacation, what helps you truly rest or feel at peace?

2. Would you say you're feeling more rushed or rested right now? Why?

3. Read Psalm 23.

What words or phrases stood out to you? Why? What does Psalm 23 reveal about God's character as our Shepherd? (Consider the following roles: guide, provider, protector, rest-giver, and faithful presence.)

What does it mean that God "makes me lie down" and "refreshes my soul"?

Verse 4 speaks of walking through the "darkest valley." How does this Psalm redefine the presence of God in hard seasons?

What does it mean that "goodness and love will follow me"? How does this challenge the way we think about our past and future?

4. Where in your life right now do you need to let God lead you into rest or trust?

5. What might it look like for you to "follow the Shepherd" this week in a practical way?

6. Is there a "valley" or burden you're walking through that you need to invite the Shepherd into? How can this group support or pray for you in that?
