

1. What's your "wilderness" experience lately (emotionally, spiritually, or relationally)? When has worship felt dry for you? What helped bring refreshment?

2. Read Psalm 63.

What words does David use to describe his longing for God? Why do you think this is significant, considering where he is?

What does David mean when he says God's love is "better than life"?

In verses 6-8, what images does David use to describe his relationship with God? How do they show intimacy and dependence?

Overall, what hits you about how you can experience and live God's love like David did?

3. What are some ways we treat God as an addition rather than our obsession? How can we cultivate deeper delight in God, especially in dry or difficult seasons?

4. What one practice this week could help you seek God more earnestly (e.g., silence/stillness, prayer, journaling, fasting, worship music)?

MESSAGE NOTES

Pastor Joe Pryor

Big idea: When we encounter God's love for us, we will delight in Him through all of life's circumstances.

Four affects of realizing the greatness of God's love in your life:

1. Your relationship with God becomes a consuming _____, not a convenient _____
2. Your worship moves from _____ to _____
3. You follow Jesus to get _____ and not _____
4. Your wilderness experiences become _____ experiences.
