

1. When have you recently said or thought, “Time is flying”? What brought that realization? How does our culture treat time: like a gift, a burden, or a race?

2. Read Psalm 90.

What verses speak most directly to you? Why?

How does Moses describe the difference between God’s nature and ours?

What does it mean to “number our days”? How is that different from just keeping a schedule?

In what areas are you relying on your own strength instead of asking God to “establish the work of your hands” (v.17)?

3. What area of your life do you tend to waste the most time on? What would it look like for you to live this week with eternity in mind? Who in your life needs you to invest in them spiritually or relationally?

4. How can you create more margin in your life to listen for God’s voice or respond to His leading? What small decision can you make this week that reflects living with eternity in mind (e.g., initiating a spiritual conversation, encouraging someone, investing time with a child)?

5. What does “eternal thinking” look like when applied to things like career, parenting, marriage, retirement, or friendships?

MESSAGE NOTES

Pastor Joe Pryor

Big idea: Life is short, wisdom is living with eternity in mind.

In order to keep this life in perspective, remember:

1. God is _____ and I am _____

How would your view of time and purpose change if you started each day remembering that God is eternal and you are not? What distractions or pursuits are keeping you from investing in what truly matters?

2. God invites you to live with _____

What intentional step could you take this week to live with eternal perspective?

3. God _____ and _____ our time

Are you looking to temporary accomplishments for meaning or to God's love and lasting purpose?
