

1. How did you come to faith in Christ? Were your eyes opened by someone's example to you, investment in you and/or words for you?

2. Read Romans 11:11-36

Have God's people gone too far as to not be able to come back to God? Why might it feel like that is the case? What does Paul say is the reality though?

What is your understanding of Gospel Jealousy? How have you experienced that to you in your life? How have you seen God use your life and your story of transformation to do extend that to someone else?

How does God going to the lengths He has gone for His people express the immense love and grace and mercy He has toward His people?

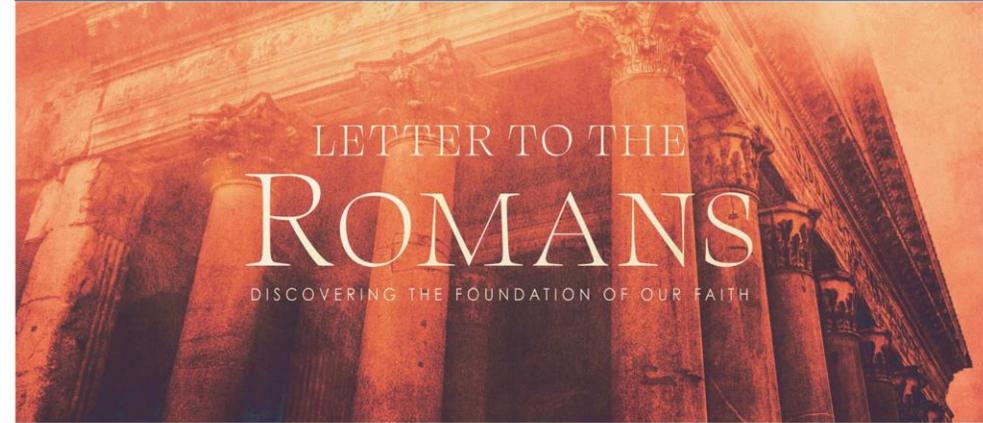

Paul makes a pretty profound (and maybe eye-opening statement) about what has been the result for Gentiles of Israel rejecting the Gospel - what is that? Why is that so significant? How can that lead to jealousy (in a good way)?

What is the significance of the illustration of the olive tree? What did you learn about God? About Israel? About Gentiles? About Unity within the church amongst all believers? About the future faith of Israel?

Paul gives a warning to Gentiles to not walk as entitled people - what does he say? How can we be tempted to make being a Christ follower American-centric and/or ourselves-centric? What stern and sobering warning does Paul give in verses 20-21? How should Gentiles live as a result?

3. The culminating result of all that Paul has written causes him to break out with a doxology and worship! When was the last time you were humbled and in awe of GOD? Take time to journal about it and/or discuss it with your group.

4. What is your next step this week to walk closely in surrender to the Lord?
