

1. Have you ever experienced someone staying loyal to you when you didn't expect them to? What did that do in you?
2. Which is harder for you to believe: that God loves you consistently, or that He won't grow tired of you?
3. Read Exodus 34:6-7.
What attributes of God stand out most to you? Why do you think He leads with "merciful and gracious"?

The word "steadfast love" (hesed) appears twice in this passage. What does it communicate about God's covenant commitment? Why is it significant that God reveals this about Himself right after Israel's golden calf betrayal?

4. Read John 1:14.
How does Jesus reflect Exodus 34? What does it mean that hesed is fulfilled in Christ?

5. In what ways have you subtly related to God as if His love depends on your performance? Where do you feel most tempted to hide from God rather than draw near to Him? When you fail repeatedly, what story do you tell yourself about how God sees you?

6. What would change this week if you truly believed you don't have to perform for God's love?
(See Ephesians 2:8-9; Galatians 3:3)

7. Is there anything you need to confess instead of manage? How does 1 John 1:9 or Hebrews 4:16 encourage you?

8. How would anchoring yourself in God's hesed change how you respond in love and relationships? Who in your life needs to experience covenant steadiness from you this week?
