BEYOND SUNDAY

Questions for reflection, conversation, and application

Connecting Together

1. Why do you think the question “Is Jesus really the only way?” can be difficult or uncomfortable to ask?
2. What are some things people commonly look to for happiness, security, identity, or satisfaction?

Connecting to the Passage

1. In Matthew 7:13–14, what contrasts does Jesus make between the broad way and the narrow way? What stands out to you?
2. Why do you think Jesus describes the way that leads to life as “narrow” and “hard”? What does that tell us about following Jesus?
3. Read John 14:6. What is significant about Jesus saying “I am the way” rather than simply saying that He knows or teaches the way?
4. Read John 15:5. What does Jesus mean when He says, “Apart from me you can do nothing”? How does this expand our understanding of what it means for Jesus to be “the way to life”?

Connecting to Application

1. It's possible to believe that Jesus is the only way to God while still looking elsewhere for what only Jesus can give. Where are you most tempted to look for identity, security, significance, peace, or satisfaction apart from Jesus?
2. What is one area of your life where your actions might communicate something different from what you say you believe about Jesus?
3. What might it look like for you to actually live as though Jesus is the only way to real life?

This Week

1. Finish this sentence honestly: “This week, I need to stop looking to _____ to give me what only Jesus can give.” What is one practical step you can take to turn toward Jesus instead?
