BEYOND SUNDAY

Questions for reflection, conversation, and application

Connecting Together

1. What's something you've tried to change about yourself but found surprisingly difficult? Why do you think lasting change can be so challenging?
2. In Sunday's message, we used an empty work glove to illustrate our dependence on the Holy Spirit. What stood out to you about that illustration? How does it help explain the difference between relying on our own strength and depending on God's power?

Connecting to the Passage

1. Read Galatians 5:16–18. Paul describes a conflict between the flesh and the Spirit. What does he mean by the flesh? How have you experienced this battle between what you know God desires and what your sinful nature wants?
2. Read Galatians 5:16 and 25. Paul uses the phrases "walk by the Spirit" and "keep in step with the Spirit." What do these expressions teach us about our relationship with the Holy Spirit? Why is walking a helpful picture of the Christian life?
3. Read Galatians 5:19–21. Which works of the flesh are sometimes overlooked or considered more acceptable among Christians? Why do you think Paul includes relational sins like jealousy, anger, rivalries, and divisions alongside other serious sins? What warning does he give about a life characterized by these behaviors?
4. Read Galatians 5:22–23. Why is it significant that Paul calls these qualities the fruit of the Spirit? What does this reveal about the source of genuine spiritual transformation? How are these qualities connected to one another?
5. Read Galatians 5:24. Paul says that those who belong to Christ have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. How does remembering that we belong to Jesus change the way we approach temptation and sinful desires?
6. Read Galatians 5:25–26. Paul concludes by addressing conceit, provoking one another, and envy. Why do you think he ends this teaching about the Holy Spirit by focusing on relationships? How does this connect with his command to love and serve one another in Galatians 5:13?

Connecting to Application

1. What is your life producing? If the people closest to you examined your attitudes, reactions, and relationships, where would they see evidence of the Spirit's work, and where might they see you still being led by the flesh? What needs to change?
2. What would it look like to depend on the Holy Spirit in one specific area of your life this week? Identify a struggle, relationship, or decision where you've been relying on your own strength. What practical step of Spirit-dependent obedience can you take?
